

Mata Kuliah	:	BAHASA INGGRIS
Prodi	:	Informatika – S1
Kelas	:	B
Hari/Tanggal	:	Senin, 14 Desember 2020
Jam/Ruang	:	11.30 – 13.00/ Ms Teams
Pengampu	:	Dra. R. Aj. Atrinawati, M.Hum.

CHOOSE THE BEST ANSWER

(Circle the best answer)

- Sometimes children get sick because of problems at home. So, doctors like to meet with the children's
a. friends                      b. parents                      c. teachers                      d. patients
- Dentists think that eating candy is bad for the teeth. If children eat candy, they will probably have tooth trouble
a. before                      b. in the past                      c. someday                      d. now
- Some birds fly many miles every year. In the fall they leave countries in the north. They fly south to warmer places. Then, in the spring, they leave their winter homes and go back
a. north                      b. south                      c. around                      d. away
- Many farmers in Florida grow oranges. They also grow lemons, limes, and grapefruit. Florida famous for its
a. apples                      b. vegetables                      c. weather                      d. fruit
- Some people prefer warmer climates. They enjoy the heat and feel happy in the sun. They do not cold weather or
a. climate                      b. sun                      c. snow                      d. night
- Some people enjoy the winter. They like winter sport such as skiing and skating. They enjoy ice and
a. weather                      b. snow                      c. sun                      d. rain
- Jazz is the only kind of music started in the United States. It began around 1900. Even today, the best jazz musician is
a. English                      b. dead                      c. European                      d. American

8. In every hot country, the sun can hurt your eyes. It's a good idea to wear a hat when you go outside. You may also need
- a. shoes                      b. sun glasses                      c. a swimsuit                      d. gloves
9. Last week Mr. Thomas rented a new apartment. He doesn't have table, chair or any other furniture yet. The apartment looks very
- a. comfortable                      b. full                      c. empty                      d. crowded 10. On special days, the whole family has dinner at our house. Everyone came last week for my father's
- a. parents                      b. family                      c. house                      d. birthday
11. The police stop a man. They said he took some money from a store. They found the money from his pocket. So, they took him to
- a. the hospital                      b. the police station                      c. the bank                      d. his home
12. People used to learn the news from the newspaper. But today many people do not read the paper. They prefer to learn the news
- a. in the movie                      b. on television                      c. in books                      d. from friends
13. The whale swims like a fish and lives in the ocean. But it is not a fish. Fish stay under water all the time. But whales must have air. They can go down deep in the ocean for many minutes. But they always need to
- a. find a fish to eat                      b. swim a long way                      c. act like a fish                      d. come up again for air
14. Whales are the largest animals. But they eat very tiny fish and sea plants. That means they must
- a. eat larger fish                      b. eat a lot                      c. drink a lot of water                      d. travel far
15. Curtains on the windows can make a room cooler in the summer. They let air come into the room. But they
- a. stop the wind                      b. keep out the sun                      c. are dark                      d. are light
16. The idea of flying is very old. Many years ago, people watched bird in the air. They studied the birds' wing, and they made wings with bird feathers. Then they
- a. flew                      b. tried to fly                      c. will fly someday                      d. told stories
17. The Wright brothers are famous in the history of flying. In 1903, they flew 120 feet in the world's first
- a. automobile                      b. machine                      c. airplane                      d. wings

18. Sputnik was the first space ship. The Russian sent it up into space in 1957. Soon after that, the Americans sent a space ship up too. That was the beginning of the
- a. scientific age                      b. space age                      c. nuclear age                      d. industrial age
19. Some scientists believe that we will have cities in space someday. Space cities may be the answer to our problem
- a. crowded cities                      b. travel                      c. technology                      d. farms
20. In 1785, two men flew from England to France in a balloon. They began to have trouble with the balloon. It went lower and lower. They threw out everything they had. It almost touched the water. Finally, they took off their clothes and threw them out too. So when they arrived in France, they were safe, but
- a. wet                      b. happy                      c. unhappy                      d. cold
21. Sometimes distant mountains look blue. But when you look closer, you see that they are not blue. They just look blue when they are
- a. near the sky                      b. under the clouds                      c. large                      d. far away
22. On windy days, the clouds are thin and high in the sky. And on rainy days, the clouds are heavy and dark. Clouds can tell you a lot about the
- a. sky                      b. air                      c. weather                      d. temperature
23. In Los Angeles, there are no subways. And there are very few buses. But there are highways everywhere. Most people get from one place to another in Los Angeles by
- a. Bus                      b. train                      c. car                      d. plane
24. Cars are one important cause of air pollution. In Los Angeles, most people drive their cars to work. This is one reason why Los Angeles
- a. has such clean air                      c. has little air pollution
b. is such a large city air                      d. has a problem with dirty
25. Before 1800s, Italy was not really a country. It was many small countries with different government. In 1870, all these small countries came together. Then
- a. modern Italy died                      c. the old Italy was born
b. modern Italy was born                      d. they started a war
26. New York is one of the biggest cities in the world. It has about seven million people. But Peking is much larger. It has almost
- a. a million people                      b. thousands of people                      c. as many people                      d. 15 million people

27. Plants grow faster in the spring. The weather is usually warmer and the days are longer. It is a good idea to start the garden in the spring. Then plants will get more
- a. air                      b. sunlight                      c. water                      d. leaves
28. Some plants grow in very dry places. These desert plants can live for a long time with no
- a. flowers                      b. sun                      c. food                      d. water
29. People used to wake up when it was light. They went to bed when it was dark. The sun was their
- a. star                      b. time                      c. clock                      d. bed
30. What is your favorite color? If you like red you may be full of life. If you like blue, you may want peace. Your favorite color tells something about
- a. colors                      b. life                      c. you                      d. peace
31. Fog is a major cause of accidents on highways in some areas. Fog can dangerously reduce visibility. The drivers cannot see very far ahead so they
- a. do not have time to avoid accidents                      c. have more time to read the sign
- b. go faster to avoid accidents                      d. do not have time to have accidents
32. Scottish people like to think that golf is a Scottish sport. The game did not come from Scotland, however. It was first played in Holland in the 14th century. Only later did it become
- a. popular with the Dutch                      c. a real sport
- b. popular in Scotland                      d. an Olympic sport
33. When Christopher Columbus sailed west from Spain in 1492 he wanted to reach Asia. He did not know there was another continent in between Europe and Asia. In fact, when he died he still believed that the land he had found was
- a. Asia                      b. America                      c. Spain                      d. another continent
34. The dog was the first domesticated animal. People learned that a dog could help hunting. Dogs also were good company for early man. We can say that the dog is man's "best friend" and his
- a. worst enemy                      b. only friend                      c. latest friend                      d. oldest friend
35. The tulip is a flower that originally grew in Turkey. In the 17th century it became popular in Holland. Some Dutch merchants became very rich by importing tulips. They sold them to the

- a. Dutch at very high prices
  - b. Turkish at very high prices
  - c. Turkish at very low prices
  - d. Dutch at very low prices
36. Evergreen trees never lose their leaves. For that reason, these trees are sometimes associated with the idea of a life after death. In Italy, evergreens are usually the only kinds of trees that people plant
- a. in graveyards
  - b. along streets
  - c. in long lines
  - d. in gardens
37. Kiwi fruit was rare in most countries. All the kiwis came from New Zealand. They were transported a great distance and so they were expensive. Now many countries grow kiwis. The supply of this fruit has greatly increased and so
- a. it has become even more expensive
  - b. it is harder to get
  - c. New Zealand has stopped producing it
  - d. it has become less expensive
38. There are many ways to prepare eggs for eating. You can fry them, boil them or scramble them. Or, if the eggs are very fresh, can be eaten without cooking. Whatever way you choose to eat eggs, however you must
- a. always break the shell first
  - b. always cook them
  - c. never cook them
  - d. never break the shell
39. Poisonous snakes can make you very ill or even kill you. However, very few snakes are poisonous. Most snakes are harmless. In fact, they usually are afraid of people. If you meet snake in your garden, it will probably
- a. bite you
  - b. slide quickly away
  - c. stay and watch you
  - d. come closer
40. Vitamins are very important for good health. One vitamin that you need to have regularly is vitamin C. Certain fruits and vegetables are rich in this vitamin. Vitamin C can be destroyed by heat, so it is good idea
- a. to eat only cooked fruits and vegetables
  - b. to eat only vegetables that have vitamin C
  - c. to eat lots of uncooked fruits and vegetables
  - d. never to eat uncooked fruits and vegetables